Mapping of the PharmD PLOs to the UAE's qualification framework.

UAE's Qualifications Frameworks Learning Outcomes Strands	B. Pharm. Program learning outcomes (PLOs)
On successful completion of the B. Pharm program, graduates will be able to:
Knowledge	K1: Describe in depth the underlying concepts and applications in key areas of biomedical, pharmaceutical, clinical and social sciences.
	K2: Outline the skills and techniques involved in drug screening, discovery, and development of a dosage form, industrial production and quality assurance of pharmaceutical and herbal products.
Skill	S1: Apply professional skills in drug design and development, performing calculations, compounding, dispensing and recommending optimal dosage regimen.
	S2: Collect relevant information for problem-solving, research projects and present reports pertinent to pharmacy.
	S3: Utilize skills in evidence-based medicine for the informed decision in monitoring disease and therapy
Responsibility	R1: Practice effectively and show professional responsibility to the society. R2: Participate actively as a leader or a member in the health care system. R3: Develop independent study skills for life-long learning and continuous professional development, along with maintaining ethical standards. R4: Implement advanced and professional pharmacy practice services